

CASH FLOW FOR THE FALL

Federal Work-Study: Current federal minimum wage could be higher based upon the type of work.

Other Employment Options: Working on or off Campus

Job-Hunting Tips for College Students

1. Search the college or university's campus newspaper.
2. While on campus visit check for "help wanted" signs
3. If you have found a job prior to a campus visit, set up an appointment with employer while you are visiting the campus.
4. If the company or organization you are currently working for has an office or franchise in the city where you'll be attending school, ask for transfer.
5. Another way for students to earn money, respect, and experience is to work for a professor or faculty member. Build up your resume and wallet by assisting a professor in their field of study.

Students remember if you plan to work in the fall, seek employment now. Don't wait until the fall; get a jump start on your peers!